What occurs in class?

- 50 min martial arts class incorporating ethics, moral integrity and martial arts technique for an age specified program
- Students learn basic technique, coordination, confidence, discipline, practical self-defense skills as well as working to achieve belt status
- Students use wholesome values to block, punch and kick while using social interaction and sportsmanship
- Observation offered through viewing windows.
- Further descriptions available on our info packets

What do I need for class?

- Gi (a martial arts uniform) is required by the 2nd class
- Bare feet are used
- Black plain t-shirt to be worn under Gi

Belt System

Our Belt Reward System improves children’s self-esteem and students will have opportunities to advance to the next belt level based on attendance, work ethic and skill sets. Rankings are determined by instructor at appropriate times. When promotions are given, belts must be purchased and students are awarded in various ways for their accomplishments. More detailed information can be found on our website about specifics regarding the program.

Make-ups

All classes may be made up by attending a second class before or after the martial artists current class.
