3 – Week Spring Dance Sessions

Thank you for your interest in On Your Toes Dance Studio.

What occurs in class?

- 45 minute ballet and tap class for dancers 3 to 5
- Dancers learn basic technique, coordination, flexibility, and motor skills as well as social skills
- Dancers learn body awareness and explore the space with various movement
- Observation day the last week of the session via Zoom!

What do I need for class?

- All dancers are required to wear a mask per our COVID – 19 policies
- Ballet and Tap shoes are required by the 2nd class (strongly encouraged for all three) – Please be sure to purchase all supplies before the first day of class
- Dance attire including leotard and tights
- We refer to On Pointe Dancewear on 4236 Telegraph Road for supplies – they will take great care of you there!

What is the benefit of taking multiple sessions?

Dance, like any other sport or hobby, requires repetition and practice in order to improve. Taking multiple sessions allows the dancer to develop skill, memory in technique, classroom structure, and vocabulary. In most cases, dancers taking multiple 3 – Week Sessions prior to beginning in the fall are most successful.

More detailed information can be found on our website under “What do I need for dance class?”

Please use the rest room at home. Families remain in cars by doors at sidewalk leading to dance room #3. Staff will escort dancers and do temperature checks and hand sanitizing.
